Aabout me

I was born in Paris in 1994, 14 years ago I left France for Tel aviv. I have been passionate about art and photography from a young age. I have traveled a lot around the world and it has helped enrich my creativity. I am a very energetic person, which can be seen a lot in my creations. Work for me is like a drug, I am constantly looking for new projects. I am passionate about all the different scales in architecture, from the doorknob to the planning of an urban block.
